Dear guests,

We offer a varied cuisine of freshly prepared dishes. Our kitchen team works hard and fast, but we ask for your understanding for eventual waiting times. The preparation of all products is done with utmost care. However we feel obliged to mark the additives that drinks and food may contain in our menu with the corresponding number.

We also would like to be good hosts to our guests that are affected by allergies and intolerances. You will receive all information about possible allergens in a separate allergy menu. Just talk to us!

As a precaution we'd like to point out that our food and drinks may contain traces of wheat, celery, sesame, nuts etc.

We are happy to pack your food to take away.

If you do not have your own containers with you, we can provide for a charge of 0,40 € per package to help the environment. Thank you for understanding!
